The new building which will house Balboa and Balboa 2nd Wards as well as the Stake has been built on a rocky promontory at the intersection of Hillside and Brunswick Streets in Daly City. Presenting this important concert is the 60 voice San Francisco Stake Women's Chorus under the direction of Jean Lauper. Soloists in the chorus are Marilyn Lee, Sheila Peterson and Nellie Van Dam. Bonnie Lauper is the accompananist.

The guest artists who will appear with the chorus are Dorisse Coats, violinist, and her accompanist, Patsy Johnson, both of Oakland, and the famous Faculty Male Quartette of San Francisco State College who will present a group of songs.

The entire evening is being sponsored by the San Francisco Stake Relief Society, and following the concert President Lillian Collett, her counselors and board will serve light refreshments to all who attend.

Temple Target Date -- Sept. 1963

By Nell Smith

The Oakland Temple will probably be ready for dedication by September, 1963, according to President O. Leslie Stone, chairman of the Oakland Temple District. This target date was announced at a meeting held in Salt Lake City during general conference weekend.

President Wendell B. Mendenhall, chairman of the Church Building Committee,, told the gathering of Northern California stake and mission presidencies that the revised drawings of the temple plans had been approved by the First Presidency and that they were now proceeding with the working drawings.

Schedule of target dates included completion of plans prior to December, 1961, checking plans and securing bids prior to March 1, 1962, starting construction by April 1, 1962, and dedication in September, 1963.

Elder Harold W. Burton, Church architect, reviewed for the group a revised sketch of the temple. He pointed out that there would be five gold spires, one main one in the center and four others around the pereimeter. He also explained the general layout of the temple, Bureau of Information, dimensions and other pertinent information.

Gold-plating on the upper points of the spires around the perimeter will catch and reflect the sun's rays in the daylight hours and after dark a light directed up through the center will create an interesting effect. The Temple will have a capacity of 360 persons, the largest in the Church.

Satisfaction was expressed with the revised sketch of the plans when President Stone called for a sustaining vote of confidence and acceptance of the latest plans and the provisions outlined.

Elder Paul E. Warnick, executive secretary to the district, reported good progress on the fund drives throughout the nineteen stakes and mission and urged those stakes who had not completed their canvass to get under way. (Ed. note: Since returning home Brother Warnick has received enthusiastic and favorable reports of renewed efforts from many stakes.) He offered to help any stake in outlining their campaign. Oakland-Berkeley Stake has already over-pledged fifty per cent with more pledges yet to come, he concluded.

Other guests who were present at the luncheon meeting held in the Hotel Utah were . Howard Dunn, Arthur Price and W. Aird MacDonald of the Church building committee, President Delbert F. Wright, president of Minneapolis Stake, formerly Oakland Stake President, and Henry A. Smith, editor, Church News. All members of the Oakland Temple District Executive Committee were in attendance.

President Stone presided at the event and President MacDonald and President Carroll W. Smith, Klamath Stake, offered prayers. Fresno Stake President Dallas A. Teuller responded for all stakes in expressing appreciation to Oakland-Berkeley Stake who hosted the luncheon.

By DOROTHY G. HAYES

Balboa 1st Ward members may soon meet a brother or sister at their door bearing the "Budget Basket." The basket will be accepted and the surprise served for dinner. Ward members were told, "Don't hold up the basket, you'll hold up the budget."

Elder Robert F. Vaden was called and accepted by the membership of Balboa 1st Ward as the assistant to Ward Clerk Leslie Glazier. In expressing himself to the ward, Brother Vaden stated his appreciation of the vote of confidence given to him. He remarked, "When you are called to a position, support your bishop. Don't go 100% of the way, but one step further—150% of the way."

Desire Grows in Proportion To Your Genealogy Research

By FLORENCE D. MARSHALL

(Ed. Note: This is the second of a series of articles by Sister Marshall. She has been a professional genealogy researcher for the Salt Lake City Genealogical Society, and has done consilerable research on ancient temples in both the old and the new worlds. Next month we will print the first of the articles on the ancient temples.)

The desire—how can I get the desire to do genealogy work? This desire grows of itself if you start working. The easiest way to start is with yourself. We may not readily admit it, but we are really more interested in ourselves; so start with yourself. Parents sit down with your children and make a complete family group for father, mother and each child, listing the oldest first. Fill in every question asked on the sheet. Then proceed back to your parents and brothers and sisters in the same manner. Take one step at a time. Do not be in haste or become easily discouraged. The Lord expects that we do our own records first—accurately and correctly. "Let us, therefore, as a church and as a people, and as Latter-day Saints offer unto the Lord an offering in righteousness; let us present in His Holy Temple ...a book containing the records of our dead which shall be worthy of all acceptation."(D&C 127:24, also D&C 127:9). All of these records must be correctly done to be worthy of a place in the temple.

Search for the stories of your family. They are as interesting as any book of fiction you'll ever read. So many of the lives of our people were just packed with romance that will thrill you. Maybe one of your ancestors fought at Yorktown, or you might have descended from Alfred The Great, Charlemagne or Pocahantas, who married John Rolfe. Many of our Church members are her descendants. Or you may be of that sturdy Scotch-Irish and Dutch who settled Pennsylvania and the Carolinas, or of the Hugenots who suffered so much in the 1600's for their religious belief. Our own pioneers did their bit in their time to help lay the foundatons of good government and make this a fine place for us to live in.

Read about the towns and villages where your ancestors lived. Read about their vocations and avocations; their church, their friends, their children. Read of how they wanted the best in life for their own as we do today. Read of their sorrows and disappointments. The few opportunities they had compared to ours today, and the unjust laws under which they lived. All this will make us understand them and cause "our hearts to turn toward them." Get all the pictures you can of them, as you surely will see some resemblance to your own family.

These were people with the same desires for their families, their country and their churches as we today. Many of them became martyrs for the cause they believed and through this made it possible for us to have the many blessings we enjoy today. Also study the geography of the places in which they lived and the relation to other cities and countries. This will help you to understand them and is also an aid in your research. Always remember they lived in a time when the gospel was not on the earth, and that many would gladly have accepted it. By this time a desire should burn within you to do for them what they cannot do for themselves.

We are a part of all those in our line who lived before us. Let us be grateful for the blessings we have received through their efforts. They were good and bad as men are today, but as a whole through their righteous efforts we have a wonderful heritage. Georgia Moore Eberling has given this thought beautiful expression:

TO AN ANCESTOR

I never met you, but I think I know
So much about you, that I almost see
Your form beside me as I onward go.
At times it seems I hear you speak to me,
I am the one to whom you handed down
Your dreams, your wonderous knowledge, and your looks.
You gave me the dreamer's laurel crown,
A love of singing words, and poet's books.
Sometimes I wonder if the words I write
Are yours or mine, for it is hard to tell,
These words that come in lovely trailing white
Or clad in black to sound a warning knell!
Dear one, my spirit knows this to be true;
You are a part of me and I of you.

Again going back to our Saviour and remembering what He did by proxy for us and that He has told us there is to be a host to be with Him as Saviours on Mount Zion when He comes, will we not bend every effort to do this work and go into the temples and perform these ordinances? For just a few hours we are guests in His House and are walking in the places where He walks and through this becoming Saviours on Mount Zion.

My Testimony

'Let Us Be Sure...'

By MABEL B. LIDDELL

"We wrote letters of resignation from our positions and asked for letters of withdrawal from the Christian Science Church. I asked that my name be withdrawn from the list of practitioners where I had served for over twenty years. We placed the keys to the building in the envelope and drove to the post office. There my husband turned first to me, then to our daughter, Lenore, saying, "Now let's be sure this is what we wish to do." We each assured him that we were sure, then all three of us mailed our leters severing all ties with the Science faith in which we had been active for over twenty-five years.

"When our decision was made we felt so relieved—so free—like shackles had been removed from us. We were going home! We could now have family prayer together, have sympathy for each other. We now knew that God lived as a real being! Life here and hereafter was a most marvelous reality!"

Thus, in the words of Mrs. Chalmers Emigh of San Jose, a new life began for her entire family when they first heard of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Surely her words echo the teaching of the Savior, "Know the truth and the truth shall make you free!"

GRADUAL PREPARATION

The Emighs feel that the Lord guided them to His Church in a remarkable manner. They were gradually prepared to hear the message of the restoration by questions that arose in their minds for which they had no answer. Mr. Emigh was unable to find any consolation at the time of their little Beverly's death. There was an unexplainable void in life after death in the faith he had lived by, and he could not accept this. He loved his baby daughter dearly and felt there must be somewhere, knowledge of life as a family after death.

Lenore was teaching a group of girls in the Science Sunday School and found that even the eight year old children questioned the explanation that Adam and Eve were mythical characters. She found herself questioning. If Adam and Eve were mythical, how about the entire Bible? How about Christ?

CHILDREN JOIN CHURCH

Then came word from Chalmers, Jr., and his wife, Irene, who were in Cambridge,, Mass., attending college. Their beautiful letter is a family treasure. "We are now members of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Eternal life now means something to us. Accepting the gospel as Jesus taught it, has made our lives complete."

Of course this was a surprise, but after some thought, these understanding parents decided to visit the church their son had chosen to see what it was like. Mrs. Emigh continues:

"The first time we attended it was fast day and as these humble people bore their testimonies, we were impressed. We took pamphets home and, of course, hid them, but that night I started reading them. I was deeply interested. I took them to the office with me daily and when I had time, sneaked them out and read avidly.

"A few months later Chalmers and Irene wrote that they were coming home for a visit. We wondered if they would be different, having mental pictures of impossible fanatics, I suppose. But what a joyous family meeting that was! They were so happy, so full of purposeful living, even more delightful to be with than ever! We attended their church with them, and again it was fast day. This time our son and his wife both gave their testimonies, the deeply moving story of their own conversion. We were so touched. The unrestrained tears trickled down our cheeks.

WARM FAMILY RELATIONS

"We were impressed with the warmth of the people toward us and the dear family relationships between the members. After that meeting, we sat far into the night listening to our son explain the reality of God and the many other truths so comforting and new to us. They prayed with us and what a tender revelation that was! I could no longer doubt.

"Our son was asked to speak one Sunday evening at the LDS Institute of Religion in Berkeley. We were again humbled and deeply moved by the fervence of his testimony.

"By this time we could no longer continue active in something which we did not believe to be true, so we broke our ties with Christion Science and began earnestly to investigate this church. Devoted stake missionaries, Lee Barker and Robert Larson came to our home to help us learn.

SON PERFORMS ORDINANCES

When we were ready for baptism, we wrote our son and he and his wife drove out to California (they stopped enroute in Salt Lake City to be married for time and all eternity in the Temple there.) During that visit he baptized and confirmed us, Chalmers, Sr., Lenore, Sheldon and me. Then began a year of preparation, learning and advancing toward the time when we could all be sealed together as a family, for time and eternity in the temple of the Lord.

"That time came on July 1, 1959, our entire family was united for eternity by El Ray Christiansen, president of the Salt Lake Temple. Irene was proxy for our little Beverly. Now we feel complete.

Mormon History In California Book Subject

The recently published history of LDS people in early California, "California Mormons, By Sail and Trail," is the result of a lifetime of dedicated effort by Annaleone D. Patton of Berkeley 1st Ward. In the nine chapters of this 190-page volume, Sister Patton unfolds the drama of the California Mormons, made accurate and complete by her years of research and correspondence.

The book begins with a chapter entitled, "The Pacific Pilgrims," which deals with the lives of the 238 Mormons who sailed around Cape Horn to California on the "Brooklyn." She also writes about the Mormon Battalion, the Donner Party and other famous expeditions and individuals in early California Mormon history.

The final chapter reveals the story of Ina Coolbrith,, poet laureate of California, who was in fact the granddaughter of Don Carlos Smith, the Prophet's brother.

Gold Plates Seen In Teheran Museum By Area Travelers

The climax of a tour to the Middle East came when four local Church members were allowed to handle and inspect a gold plate inscribed legibly with cuneiform characters. The plate, deposited by Darius the Great about 515 B. C., is on view in a museum in Teheran, where there are also other similar plates of silver and gold. These were deposited at the Persepolis residence of the Persian kings not long from the time when Lehi, led his family to America.

Hefting the 18-inch square plate were Bishop Keith E. Garner, Sidney V. Badger and Robert M. Ord, all of Menlo Park, and Thomas S. Ferguson of Orinda. The account of the gold plate was told last month in a letter to Mrs. Francis Badger from her husband. He explained that the palace at Persepolis took nearly 200 years to build, and is very beautiful, even though it is now in ruins, having been restroyed by Alexander the Great. Persepolis is near the present city of Shiraz, and was the one-time spring palace of Cyrus the Great, Darius and Xerxes.

The four elders were allowed by the museum director to hold and photograph the gold and silver plates, which had lain in a stone box with stone lid for nearly 25 centuries, undisturbed and in perfect preservation. The museum director opened the case and let these brethren handle the plates as a special favor.

Thomas S. Ferguson Lectures Soon In New San Francisco Stake House

Thomas Stuart Ferguson, attorney, lecturer, archaeologist, and church leader, will be the featured speaker in a special event on May 19 in the new home of the San Francisco Stake, 1399 Brunswick in Daly City, the corner of Brunswick, Mission, and Hillside.

The program will start at 7:30 p.m. with Bishop Samuel Chandler of the Balboa Ward conducting. Appropriate musical numbers will correlate with Elder Ferguson's address.

Shortly before appearing in San Francisco, Brother Ferguson will return from a journey to Israel and the Middle East. On this trip, he and three associates will visit Germany, Iran, Lebanon, Egypt, Greece, and Rome. Their object is to compare old world archaeology with that of the new world.

During the program Ferguson plans to show slides of areas in Mexico and Central America that contain ruins dating back to Book of Mormon times. These slides were taken by him while working as an archaeologist with the New World Archaeological Foundation. At the present time he is president of this organization.

Ferguson is the author of three books. His latest, "One Fold and One Shepherd," has been widely acclaimed throughout the Church and widely read by people in the Bay Area. According to Bishop Chandler, nearly every public library in the Bay Area has purchased this book in response to requests from patrons.

The Ferguson program will be presented in the newly completed San Francisco Stake house. This spacious building will accommodate two wards and the stake offices. It cost in excess of $500,000 and features the latest developments in Latter-day Saint architecture. Since the program is booked as a building fund event, donations will be received at the door.

Samuel W. Taylor Speaks Again at Writers' Confab

Interesting things have been happening to author Samuel W. Taylor, our Messenger reporter and photographer from Redwood City.

His book "Family Kingdom," originally published by McGraw-Hill, was reissued in March as a Signet book by The New American Library. Vardis Fisher said of this book, "This is by far the best book on the subject of polygamy in Mormonism I have ever read . . . tears streamed down my seamy old face as I finished reading it."

DISNEY STORY

Mr. Disney finally got around to making a picture, based on a story he bought from Sam. Entitled "The Absent Minded Professor," it is being called "the best comedy of the decade."

The March 18 issue of the "Saturday Evening Post" contained a short story by our versatile author and an independent Hollywood producer is going into production this month with a screenplay that Sam just finished.

As we go to press Sam will be appearing as a panelist on two different sessions—the Drama and the Short Story—of the California Writers' Conference, April 29, Jack London Hall, Oakland. Sam has been featured as a speaker at this annual conference, sponsored by the Oakland Tribune, the Chamber of Commerce, and the California Writers' Club, for seven consecutive years. The reason he has spoken at only seven of these annual events is that there have been only seven.

Elder Sonne Tells W.C. Conference Sermon on Mount Practical Guide

Jesus' Sermon on the Mount is and was a most practical rule and guide to everyday life, Elder Alma Sonne, Assistant to the Council of the Twelve, told the quarterly conference of Walnut Creek Stake Easter Sunday at the East Bay Interstake Center, Oakland.

Illustrating his points with stories and reminiscences, Elder Sonne continued, "The crowning achievement of Jesus was His victory over death. Remember His remark to Thomas, '— — because thou hast seen me thou hast believed; blessed are they which have not seen and yet have believed.'

"Our mission is to call to repentance all people, both without and within the Church."

Elder Sonne's companion was Elder Paul C. Child of the general welfare committee who admonished, "Having a good conscience toward God includes sharing with those who have not, bearing one another's burdens, comforting those who mourn, and doing all the other things the Savior described.

WELFARE PROGRAM

"This ties in directly with the Church Welfare Program which is a means of carrying out the covenant. There is no way to salvation but by obedience to the laws of God. These include tithing, support of the welfare program and activities, and the sometimes-slighted law of the fast."

Kenneth D. Jensen, first counselor to Stake President Norman B. Creer, spoke on Jesus' appearance to the Nephites, His instruction of His disciples, the sacrament, how to pray, and the obligation He laid on us to spread the truths of the gospel.

Second Counselor J. R. Hilton related his young son's comment about the large number of "Easter Mormons" and expressed hope that this indicated interest will be extended first to every Sunday, then to all of every day.

Alluding to the current request for contributions to the Oakland Temple building fund, president Hilton remarked, "These Houses of the Lord repay all sacrifices. They are the most wonderful buildings we erect on earth. May we in this area appreciate the opportunities that are ours and respond by contributing generously. Those who built the Kirtland Temple were few in number and had no generous Salt Lake organization to carry most of the financial load."

NEED FORGIVENESS

Elwood F. Meredith of the Stake high council spoke on forgiveness and the necessity for each of us to forgive others freely if we are to ask forgiveness for our own sins, mistakes, offenses, and shortcomings.

Of 20 men and one woman from Walnut Creek Stake on field missions, six are at least 50 per cent self-supporting, President Norman B. Creer reported to the conference.

"The young people are helping to bring the message of Easter to the world," President Creer said. "We are moved to ask ourselves, 'Are we living the commandments? All of them?

"We all fall down in this measure. We must strive continually to come up to these exacting standards."

"What kind of person was our Lord, Jesus Christ?" Verland Christiansen of the Stake High Council asked in his conference talk. "Because He is central to our faith we should know. Fortunately, the scriptures tell us, if we search them.

"He was and is a member of the Godhead. He is the author of the accepted plan for the earth. He had and has power over life and death. He gave us salvation from death. He offered us salvation from ignorance and from sin.

"He speaks to us today through His prophets. We have a responsibility to live His gospel and to serve our fellow man, as He commanded us."

Conference reports were given in a recent sacrament meeting by the bishop and two priests who had qualified for the trip through attendance and activity in their quorum. The boys were Howard Bybee and Dexter Ralph. Morgan Lewis had also qualified for the trip but was unable to attend because of school commitments. The boys expressed gratitude for the opportunity to see President McKay and the general authorities and testified of their divine calling.

Annual Relief Society Bazaar To Feature Handmade Articles, Gifts

By BETTY MOSS

May 5, is the date to remember for the annual Claremont Ward Relief Society Bazaar and dinner. A beautiful display of handmade items by the women of the ward over the past year will be the feature atraction. Among these will be unique articles for children. A baked goods booth will feature the prize culinary creations of the best cooks of the ward.

During April the Boy Scouts went on an overnight bike hike. They cycled from Walnut Creek to Marsh Creek Resort and back, carrying full packs for overnight camping. Those who endured through flat tires and aching legs were Dave Wilkins, Paul Barry, Bob Kassow, Wyatt Ribarich, Vernon Muhr, Bobbie Morgan, Richard McKinney, and Scoutmaster Marvin Moss. Cycling merit badges as well as other camping requirements were passed on the trip.

John Anderson has accepted the calling of Superintendent of the YMMIA. Biggest efforts in the Mutual now are being concentrated on the dance festival coming up in May. Jeff Millward and his junior softball team received a little inspiration by going as a group to see the San Francisco Giants play.

We would like to welcome five new members into our ward: Marie Motsinger, Betty Rowe, Harry Lord, Carol Cox, and James Moore. They were all baptized at the service on April 1.

We were sorry to hear of the death of Walter Carey who was formerly a member of our ward.

Margaret and Ernie Ahlborn will soon embark on a trip of 5 or 6 weeks. They will attend a Fire Prevention Convention in Detroit, taking the long way home through Canada to see their son who is serving a mission there. They will also stop off in Minnesota to visit with relatives.

Human interest story of the month: One of our young couples, after much scrimping, managed to save $15 with which to celebrate their wedding anniversary. With money in hand, they started the journey to San Francisco, not quite certain how to spend it. A friendly waitress in Blum's, after selling them two 10c candy bars, told them of a good resturant. Apparently, the dinner was delicious, the tip non-existent, and after the parking charge was paid only 5c remained in the hands of the celebrants. Bridge toll: 25c. In desperation they journeyed to Blum's and tried to sell their candy bars back. Illegal, they were told, but the kind-hearted waitress donated the much needed 20c to the cause and our anniversary couple fled into the night to cross the big waters.

Surprise Party For Bishopric of Hayward Third

By SHIRLEY TROUB

A long kept and safely guarded secret was revealed Saturday night, Mar. 25, when the Hayward 3rd Ward members surprised their bishopric with a "Bishopric Appreciation Night."

Leo Williams and Ted Thiel organized and planned this party many months ago when they personally visited twelve couples, told them their plans and asked for their support. Each of these couples were assigned a number of ward families to visit. Each family was told of the party, asked to donate $10.00 and to keep the secret. No announcements were made, no letters were sent, everything was done by personal visits. By Mar. 25, all but the bishopric and their wives knew of the party. President Ream gave his full support and made the arrangements to get the bishopric and their wives to the ward without arousing their suspicion.

The theme of the evening was "Hard Times" and everyone came dressed appropriately. A huge poster stretched the length of the hall saying "This Is Your Ward." The hall was dark and empty except for a single spot light shining down in the center of the room over a king-sized cake which said "In Appreciation of Our Bishopric." The ward members hiding behind the closed curtains of the alcove and stage shouted, "Surprise!" to six astonished people in the middle of a darkened room.

Robert Troub was master of ceremonies for the evening, Virginia Jones led the group in a grand march and some games, and Joan Stam was in charge of the mixer dances. Photographs were taken throughout the evening by Al Scheuller. The grand finale was a game conducted by Leo Williams. Lines were strung across the hall and each person was given five clothespins and told when the lights went out, they were to hang five articles on the line. While the bishopric desperately searched for five articles to hang up, the rest hung up five one-dollar bills. A very surprised and happy bishopric reaped a harvest of nearly $600.00. Refreshments arranged by Maury Jones were served hobo style. After a final dance and closing prayer the party was over but not forgotten.

Not Kid's Game

TAG Draws Many Comments, Praises

The phrase, TAG is being heard in every ward of the Bay Area stakes . . . It isn't the game we played as kids, but some of the area's most talented people are having a ball with TAG.

Yvonne King Courtney will tell you that TAG is as thrilling and delightful as anything she has done with her very talented sisters. It compares to her excitement recently when on one of TV's most popular shows Mr. Sullivan said, "And now the King sisters." Richard King, former student body president at U. C. and now a law student says, "This is one case where I'm happy to take the floor. TAG is going to set a precendent for drama, music, laughter and dancing that will long be remembered." Jay Hall, who recently returned from Hollywood says, "Hollywood has its characters and TAG brings them to life."

Most important, everyone is effected by TAG because TAG is the inter-stake Theater Arts Guild. The more than 50 multi-talented members of TAG are looking forward to May 12 and 13, when they will be presenting a most refreshing evening of theater in Broadway style—the original musical, "The Good Word." Curtain time is 8:30 p.m.

Funeral Held for Elaine S. Smith

Services were held at the Walnut Creek Ward Chapel, Tuesday, April 18, for Elaine Stoker Smith, who died April 15. Bishop Mark R. Bickley officiated. James M. Osborn offered the invocation. Speakers were Dr. Milton Brinton and Bishop Mark R. Bickley. Musical numbers were a vocal solo "The 23rd Psalm" by Dr. Philip Dalby, an organ solo "Rest, Rest For The Weary Soul" by Nico D. Snel and a vocal trio, Elaine Jensen, La Von Pardini, and Ruth Brown sang "Hold Thou My Hand."

Benediction was by Kenneth D. Jensen. Interment was in Salt Lake City, Utah.

Elaine is survived by her husband, G. Gilbert Smith; three children, Susan, Bradford and Robyn; her mother, Mrs. Evelyn Stoker of Ogden, Utah; three sisters Mrs. Josephine Childs and Mrs. Vera Janke of Sacramento, and Mrs. Dorothy Egginton, Kaysville, Utah; three brothers, Maurice Stoker of Pasadena, Harold Stoker of Sonora and Floyd Stoker of Salt Lake City.

Elaine was born in Hooper, Utah, October 15, 1927. The family moved to Ogden when Elaine was five years old. She attended Ogden High School and Weber College where she majored in music.

During her school years she was the finalist in the State Federation of Music contest.

"Die Fledermaus" and "Carmen" were among the operas she sang as a soloist with the Utah Opera Workshop under the direction of Carlos Alexander. She also worked with the University of Utah Summer Theatre for three years singing roles in "The Promised Valley," "Faust," "Merry Widow," "Kiss Me Kate," "Samson and Delilah," and others.

Singing with the Salt Lake City Theatre performance of "Pride and Prejudice" was also one of her fond memories.

Elaine was married to G. Gilbert Smith on August 28, 1952, in the Salt Lake Temple, shortly after which they moved to Walnut Creek to establish their home. Elaine was active in music in California also, although her main concern was in raising her family.

She sang a lead role with the Oakland Civic Light Opera Association in "Naughty Marietta." She also was the soloist each Sunday morning for The First Christion Church of Lafayette. She truly enjoyed singing and never passed up an opportunity to sing.

She was Stake Relief Society Chorister and also taught in Primary. Her most recent church position was that of president of the YWMIA of Walnut Creek Ward. The most outstanding program this youth organization of the ward ever had was developed under her direction.

Elaine's cheerfulness, unselfishness, and concern for others will be long remembered by those who knew and loved her. Bishop Bickley stated, "May we remember the bright spot in our lives that was Elaine Stoker Smith, and may we profit by the example of Christian living which she so ably demonstrated to us."

Palo Alto Stake Now Installing New Pipe Organ

By Anglela B. Haight

A new pipe organ, specially built to fit the space behind the speakers' platform in the Palo Alto Stake House (Menlo Park Ward), is in the process of installation.

The organ was made in the Laukuff factory in Weikersheim, Germany, where the larger organ for East Bay Interstake Center was also constructed. The factory is 200 years old and employs 400 people. Over 90 per cent of the work on the organ was done by hand. It required ten months to build and two months to ship to the United States.

With the most advanced electro-pneumatic action in use today, the organ has 1200 pipes, ranging in size from sixteen feet to six inches in length and from nine inches to one-quarter of an inch in diameter.

Mr. Chapman from San Leandro, an expert honey man, talked on the benefit of using honey, and gave an interesting description on the life of the bee.

A luncheon was given at the home of Verla Hodges, 1450 Laurenita Way, Alamo, on Friday, April 28. Jane Friden entertained her audience with a book review. The social was well attended and enjoyed by members and nonmembers alike.

Danville Ward is happy to have Mr. and Mrs. Werner as new members of the Church. They were confirmed at fast and testimony meeting on Mar. 26.

Our Mutual play, "Peaceful Valley," was one of three chosen to be in the stake finals.

There will be four couples entering the dance festival; namely, Karen Edgar and Jeff Kimball, Maxine Lynch and Kim Friden, Maurine Lynch and Baron O'Nion, Jackie Larsen and Allen Buskirk.

'Rotten Creation' Talent Nite Hit

By Anna Bushman

Lambda Delta Sigma is having a busy spring season. Their talent show was on Saturday evening, April 15. Several entertaining and thought-provoking skits, musical numbers, monologues, and pantomimes were presented. One highlight of the evening was another famous "Robert R. Elder M. Reed Called East To Western States

The congregations of the Castro Valley wards met together at sacrament services to honor Elder Morgan Lewis Reed who has been called to the Western States Mission. He reported to the Mission Home in Salt Lake City on April 24.

Son of Elder and Mrs. John G. Reed, Morgan was born in Arizona but came to Castro Valley while still a baby. He has attended schools in Castro Valley and is a graduate of Castro Valley High School. He was an employee of the telephone company when his mission call came.

Herbert J. Marsh, bishop of Castro Valley 2nd Ward, conducted the meeting. Three of Morgan's former bishops talked at the farewell: Bishops Herman A. Christensen, Wilford T. Webb and Heber James Brown. Elder Cornelius Paine also occupied the pulpit with the missionary's parents. Rex and Mary Bolles sang two duets while Elders Robert Reed and Willie Bell offered the prayers.

Elder Reed was advisor to the teachers' quorum. He was presented with a combination book of scriptures by Stake President Milton P. Ream on behalf of the Castro Valley 2nd Ward membership.

Bishop John Drushal To Conference Visits Former Ward Members

By BETTY GROMMESH

Bishop John Drushal of Oakland 2nd Ward took a short vacation to Salt Lake City for general conference. While there, he visited our college girls and had dinner with Danny Edwards, his wife and baby. Danny is a former member of the ward who now lives in Provo. Bishop Drushal also visited his mother while in Salt Lake.

The ward MIA presented a one-act play at the Interstake Center last month. It was supposed to have been original but this was unknown until the night and consequently the ward could not place in the competition. The play was directed by Barbara Sorensen and Donald Anderson. The cast included Brent Collard, Kathy Kelley, Gail Wentworth, Nancy and Sharon Allphin, Nancy Haws, Michael McDonald, Francine Lamph and Norman Larsen.

The Scouts of Oakland 2nd Ward have really been busy lately. Robert Stein, scoutmaster of Troop 404, has taken them to Muir Woods several times lately for overnight trips. Glen Fullmer, Kinston Partington, Terry Pickett, Merle Morris Jr., Robert Buckner, and Donald Johnson joined the scoutmaster for the camp out, hikes, tracking, learning trail blazing, camping techniques and cooking skills.

Daleene Tueller and Curtis Menning were married on March 31, in the Los Angeles Temple. They are now living in Menlo Park.

Leon Goodman and Jan Harrison announced their engagement in March at a family dinner at Omar Khayam's restaurant in San Francisco. Leon was formerly a resident of El Paso. He is working here as a field engineer with Remington Rand Univac. Jan is a nurse at the Kaiser Foundation Hospital in Walnut Creek and a member of the Walnut Creek Ward. They plan to be married August 7, in the Salt Lake Temple. For the first few months of their married life, they will live in Oakland.

Susan Young is wearing a lovely diamond ring. She recently became engaged to Tom Williams. Tom is a member of Napa Ward and is stationed at Mare Island.

SMITHS MOVE NORTH

George and Lavona Smith who have been in the ward for almost 13 years have moved to Spokane, Washington, where the Southern Pacific Railroad transferred George. This promotion brings a future of travel which both look forward to. Lavona, while in the ward was in the Relief Society presidency and in the last two years was active in genealogy work. The Smiths came originally from Salt Lake City. They leave in California one son, two daughters and a number of grandchildren.

Vacation plans of ward families get underway in a few weeks when James and Leona Bennett take a jet trip to Cherry Point, North Carolina, to visit his son who is a pilot in the Air Force. This will be the first reunion in seven years for father and son and includes seeing three grandchildren for the first time. They will conclude their trip with a tour of Washington, D. C.

EBEL-CONSIDINE

A former member of our ward, Glen Ebel was married to Dorothy June Considine April 8, in the ward chapel by William F. Shaw. Glen is now a member of Concord Ward and Dorothy is not a member of the Church.

Pear Sparks spent several weeks in the Salt Lake area recently for General Conference and research in the Genealogy Library. Sister Sparks is in charge of research and training for the genealogy library which will soon open here. She went to Salt Lake to learn valuable information from the Genealogy Library in Salt Lake.

On March 18, a father and sons Scout outing was held at the home of Earle Hall on Sequoah Road. The outing was conducted by scoutmaster Robert Stein who was assisted by Earle Hall, Norman Larsen and Joe Plazola. The outing was an all-day affair and began with assembly, prayer, and presentation of colors. During the day there was something for everyone, every minute. On the program were forestry activity, natural history, scoutcraft, hobbies, roundtable discussion, knot tying, lashing, heliography, Morse code and blacksmithing. All 14 who attended helped in the cooking at noon, and Brother Hall says, "It was done with a shout."

This reporter asked the scoutmaster about the future program and he says "We camp out and we are going to make our utensils."

The Scouts who qualify will go on a boat fishing trip next month. Earle Hall has a boat and will be the skipper for the affair with the scoutmaster in charge of the other part.

John Goddard's 'Down Under', In San Lorenzo

By GARYL G. FISHER

John M. Goddard will bring his latest adventure, "Exploring Lands Down Under," to the stage of the Eastbay Interstake Center for two shows, on Friday and Saturday nights, May 26 and 27.

Goddard will bring to the screen a fast-paced documentary featuring the highlights of his three-month, 30,000 mile safari to the South Pacific Islands of New Zealand, Australia, and New Guinea. Action scenes include the chase, harpooning and battle of a 40-ton humpback whale; spectacular underwater shots of a 50-ton mother whale and her 18-foot baby being visited by 33 playful porpoises; skiing and climbing in the spectacular New Zealand Alps.

Other scenes depict landing a light plane on a huge glacier; salvage of sunken World II ships; and the battle charges and funeral ceremonies of the world's most picturesque warriors.

Mr. Goddard's third Interstake show is being sponsored by the San Lorenzo 2nd Ward under the general chairmanship of Blaine LeCheminant. All Bay Area wards and stakes are invited to share in the proceeds of Mr. Goddard's show through the sale of tickets. Tickets are being distributed at a suggested donation price of $1.50 each. Of this amount, wards participating in the selling program will retain $1.00 from each ticket with 50c to be returned to San Lorenzo 2nd Ward. Further information on the cooperative ticket plan will be made available by phoning either Brother LeCheminant at ELgin 1-0247 or Ticket Chairman Dean Starr, EL 1-8843.

All proceeds derived by the San Lorenzo 2nd Ward from this program will go into the ward building fund, according to Bishop Delvar Carter.

San Rafael-Greenbrae

Music Festival for Marin Wards Has R. Glenn, G. Jones, K. Pandit

By Nettie Clark

Saturday evening, April 1, is a time that will be long remembered by the members of San Rafael Ward, for on this night the bishopric sponsored a music festival.

Rexine Glenn, concert pianist, who is a member of Greenbrae Ward, favored us with two Chopin selections "Scherzo in B Flat Minor" and "Etude." She also played De Rose's "Deep Purple," Rexine has the rare quality of being extremely talented, beautiful and completely untempramental.

Our next performer was Georgene Doutre Jones, contralto, who sang "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice" from Saint Saens Opera "Sampson and Delilah" and a medley from Rogers and Hammerstein's "Sound of Music." Georgene gave a very delightful performance.

Last was the star of the evening Korla Pandit, well known performer of T.V. fame. To say he is sensational, is putting it too mildly. His use of the organ as a percussion instrument is unbelievable. He plays the organ and piano at the same time creating the most unusual effects imaginable. Although he played a long prepared program and many requests called to him by the audience the evening was over much too soon.

For the past two years, we have been fortunate to have as members in our ward Helen Sower, and her two daughters, Lindsey and Sandy. Helen worked in so many capacities in Church, that at one time she had six different jobs. After 20 years, her husband traded his Army uniform for school clothes and they have moved to San Luis Obispo. To show the Sowers in a small way, how much San Rafael Ward thought of them, they were honored by two parties. One, a progressive dinner, was given by the officers and teachers of the auxiliary organizations, with tomato juice cocktails and hors d'oeuvres at the home of the Juan Lynns, main course of baked ham, sweet potatoes, and creamed green beans at the Percy Poulson home, and on to the Frank Clark house for cake and Postum, where Helen was presented with a lovely copper pin and earring set. The following week they were honored at a reception and open house in the ward Recreation Hall. This was under the supervision of the Relief Society with the help of the Sunday School. Cake and punch were served. All who attended were asked to write in a memory book which was presented to Sister Sower at the end of the evening.

Ronald Douglas Dunford reached the age of eight, which allowed him to enter the waters of baptism on April first and be confirmed a member of the Church on Easter Sunday Morning.

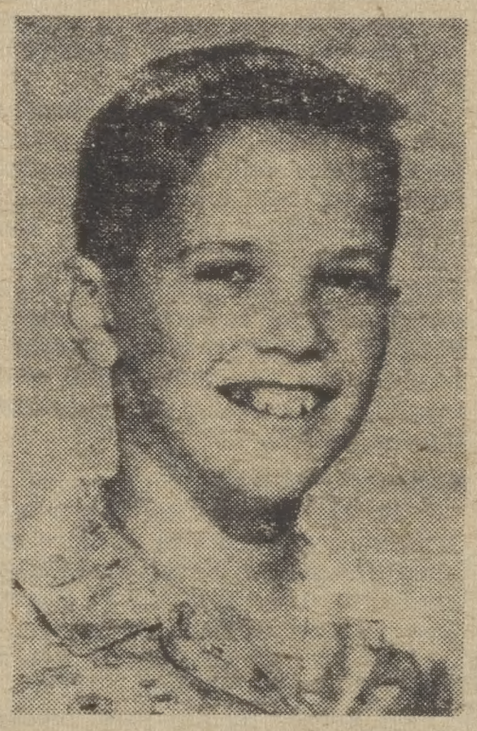
There is evidence that there will be many baby showers in our Primary organization this year. One such shower honoring Betty Joy Schmitt was given on April 19th by Jean Dunford and Claudia Bliss.

Sister Jessie Slocum was in charge of refreshments, Louise Woods table decoration, Noreen Deaver Program, and Margaret Hunsaker clean up.

With the coming of spring, many hearts turn to the baseball diamond, and on Wednesday night, April 12, the cry of "play ball" filled the Recreation Hall of San Rafael-Greenbrae Ward.

The room was filled with young boys, older boys, and old boys, (and their mothers and sisters too!) to hear a thrilling talk by Vernon Law the only big League Player who is a Church member. What an inspiration to the boys of all ages to hear of his experiences in baseball and his sincere testimony of the gospel. He said he never finds it hard living the gospel even when he's traveling around with the team; for there are 24 men to see that he never deviates from the straight and narrow! Elder Law told of being sent out of a game by the umpire, and didn't know why he was forced to leave. In the umpire's report to the league president he stated, he made "Deacon" leave the game because such abusive language was being used by the other players he didn't think Vernon should hear it.

Vernon spoke for about an hour after which the audience was invited to ask questions. This went on for at least another half hour. It so happened that he had pitched the whole game this day for the Pittsburgh Pirates against the San Francisco Giants, and lost 2-1. He said, "Don't think playing ball is an easy way to make a living." He has lost as much as twelve pounds pitching one game. A big "thank You" to our Santa Rosa Stake YMMIA for arranging this memorable evening.



Frank K. Root, son of Dr. and Mrs. Frank K. Root, Jr. of Castro Valley, is a 5th grader at Castro Valley Elementary School, Vice-President of the student body, editor of the school paper, plays trombone for the school band and plays on the school baseball team.

Explorers Plan "White Water" Trip Down Eel River in Five Kayaks

By Lois H. Butler

The Explorer Scouts of Walnut Creek Ward are constructing five fibre glass kayaks and learning to manipulate them in preparation for a big summer river trip. Three of the kayaks are finished and kayak basic instruction has started in a swimming pool. Soon the boys will go to the American River for training on moving water. A great deal of work has gone into the project in the past nine months and every Saturday from now on will be needed to finish the kayaks and take intensive training in them. Four rented canoes will be used on the trip, also. The trip will be for a full week going down the Eel River from Dos Rios to South Fork and will all be through wilderness country. Bishop Bickley and Explorer Leader Dr. Harold Olpin took the Sierra Club training course in kayak river running. Dr. Olpin spent a week in April with the Sierra Club exploring the Eel River. Ten explorers with Dr. Olpin, Bishop Bickley, Reed Schow and Don Jewkes as leaders will make the Eel River trip in June.

Stephen and Jessamine Andrews were baptized and confirmed members of the church by stake missionaries. Brother Andrews was born in Salt Lake City so all his friends were Mormons. His wife remembers him telling her when they were high school age of the fine people he knew and lived among there. Sister Andrews was always interested in the history of the Mormon people and liked to read of them from the time she could read alone. Two years ago she shared a hospital room with Sister Erickson of Pleasant Hill. When the elders came to administer to her they administered to Sister Andrews also. She was blessed by receiving an answer to prayer, in having life restored. She determined to learn more of the Church and began studying. Several months ago she requested stake missionaries and Elders Beck, Bench, Blake, and Butler have all taught the Andrews. The Andrews feel that joining the Church is something they have wanted to do for a long time.

The original dance group from Mutual has been chosen to dance at the District Dance Festival at Santa Rosa. Their dance is called the Najaho Nocturnal. The dancers are Bruce Muir, Allen Davis, Val Thomas, Steve Hilton, Don Jewkes, Donna Reed, Carol Bobo, Suzanne Hilton, Virginia Muir, and Linda Lee.

The Primary will have 140 children, officers and teachers on the Sunday evening service May 7. The program will show by illustrating in song and demonstration what the Primary tries to do for children.

Dinner was served to 360 people at the Ward Birthday Party. Donna Curtis and Joyce Henderson of the Mutual presented the novel program. The Primary carried out a Dutch theme by decorating tables with windmills and large delightful murals made by Sally Hatch. It was a most successful party.

Larry and Evelyn Watt will be moving into their new home at Clyde soon. Evelyn was honored at a party given by Gertrude Kesler. All women on Evelyn's Relief Society list were invited and presented a gift of appreciation to Evelyn for fine and faithful service.

Bill and Dixie Lloyd bought a house in Concord so the ward will lose a Mutual Athletic Director and a Sunday School teacher. Marilyn Hansen will live in Lafayette after her marriage so has given up her Sunday School class. Irma Bledsoe will teach the class that her daughter Janae taught before her marriage and move from the ward. Geneve Clark is ward librarian assisting Bertha Green and Mary Atherton.

Brent, son of Carl and Illeene Rasmussen, and Nancy, daughter of Bill and Oral Burroughs, won the contest for best dancers at the end of the Cotillion Dancing Season at Parkmead School. They are eighth graders. They also won the contest when in the seventh grade.

Louise Mann was honored by the Primary group she taught with a luncheon given by Janice Williams. All the girls and their mothers were there. A Baby gift was given Louise and the girls each performed on the program.

New ward members are Doris A. Davidson; Leo and Ruth Bobo with Ruth, Carol, John, David and Jennifer; Linda R. Johnson Blount and two sons,, Robert and Steven.

Sealings Done For Forebears On Temple Visit

By Delores Lambert

Twenty-nine members from Mission and Balboa Wards and the Polynesian Branch went on an excursion recently to the Los Angeles Temple. They attended two sessions and Sisters Jean Manning and Mabel Liddell did sealings for their ancestors. They returned to report to the Ward Conference of their spiritual feast.

The theme for Mission Ward Conference was: "I say unto you be one: And if ye are not one ye are not mine." (D.&C. 38:27)

President Irven Derrick presided and he and M. Dale Ensign gave inspiring messages along with the ward officers. Former Bishop Joseph Harper spoke. He and his wife were visiting from South Carolina where he is still bishop.

Bishop Lefler remarked at the beginning of the meeting that "sometimes it isn't what you know but who you know." This statement proved itself when Norville and Joyce Craven, formerly of Salt Lake City, made arrangements for the "Keynotes," a chorus composed of sisters from the Salt Lake area, to present their sacred program. Their director was Don K. Singleton and accompanist Kathleen Randle.

CUB CARNIVAL

The Cub Scout workers were busy preparing for their carnival the past month and all who attended had a good time.

Seminary Students Melvin Barber and Ella Sessions have had outstanding attendance. In their fourth year of Seminary they have missed only two days each.

The MIA presented a colorful Mexican Dinner to raise funds for the new stake building. Richard Hilder and his helpers handled the kitchen detail. Featured were the songs of Armando Quevedo and his friend. The singing Senoras Joyce Craven and Marilyn Lefler sang two numbers and the "Keynotes" sang at the dinner also.

If anyone was hungry from Mission Ward during the past month it was their own fault for the Elders Quorum had a roast beef dinner the week following the MIA fete. Our faithful cook Art Libby did the honors. The proceeds went to help Quorum members meet expenses for temple trips.

Los Altos Ward

Elder Francis To Andes Mission

By BONNIE HILL

A farewell testimonial in honor of Elder Richard Kent Francis was held on March 12, in the Los Altos Ward chapel. He has begun his missionary labors in the Andes Mission, which presently includes Bolivia, Chile, and Peru.

Kent is the son of Reed and Leslie Francis, and is the eldest in a family of eight children whose ages range from six weeks to nineteen years. His father is a junior high school mathematics teacher and formerly served as a counselor in the Los Altos Ward bishopric. His mother has found time from her family duties to work for many years in the Primary organization—as a ward president and stake board member.

He was born March 4, 1942, in San Diego, and soon after, Kent and his parents moved to Springville, Utah, where they made their home until coming to Los Altos in 1952. Kent attended local schools and in junior high was awarded a savings bond scholarship for outstanding growth and achievement in his class. He graduated from Los Altos High School in 1960 and until his mission attended San Jose State—majoring in engineering and qualifying for the honor roll.

His parents report that Kent's main interests have always centered around Church activity, in studying the gospel and preparing for a mission. He has been saving for this goal since the age of ten when he began putting money aside from his paper route. He later worked after school and weekends at a Mountain View store and added further to his mission fund by working last summer in a cannery.

In 1959 Kent was graduated from the seminary program, but felt it worth the extra effort and early hour to attend an additional year. He has been an active participant in ward and priesthood projects, as well as MIA activities —road shows and softball teams. It was a great thrill for him to go to Salt Lake City in 1958 and sing with the Northern California youth chorus at the June Conference.. He sang in the regional Messiah performances for the past two years and often assisted as organist for the ward priesthood meetings. He has received individual awards yearly since 1952 and has a record of 100% attendance at Sunday School, sacrament and priesthood meetings for the past six and one-half years. He earned the Duty to God award in 1958.

Kent recently arrived in San Bernardo, Chile to begin his labors. In a letter to his parents he mentioned that although he had studied Spanish for two years, the present language sounded like nothing he had ever heard before—a situation surely familiar to many other missionaries.

Geurts Go To Hawaiian Isles Labor Mission

By JEAN LAUPER

One of the ladies of Sunset Ward, Sister Sarah T. Parkin, has received word that her son-in-law and daughter, Bishop and Sister Theodore I. Geurts of Bountiful, Utah, have been called on a mission to the Hawaiian Islands to participate in the building program of the Church. The Geurts will take their four young sons, leaving behind three married daughters.

Sister Parkin lived in Bountiful and Salt Lake City for many years before coming to San Francisco to make her home with a son. She is the mother of a large and distinguished family, all devoted church workers, the grandmother of 28 and great grandmother of 22. On her 70th birthday Sister Parkin was honored at an open house while visiting in Bountiful and 350 old friends and neighbors came to greet her. In Sunset Ward she takes an active part in the Relief Society and is an officer in the Daughters of the Utah Pioneers.

When conference was held in Tokyo April 2, honors came to Lt. Lynn Kleinman who received his Master M Man award and was set apart by President Andrus of the Far East Mission, to be the district president. Brother Kleinman's wife, Josie Rich Kleinman was sustained as organist of the Tokyo district at the same conference.

Goal Changed For McClellans To So. America

By G. Cutter

Bishop D. Ross McClellan and his wife, Margaret, were called to Salt Lake City on Mar. 25, to receive further instructions regarding their missionary call. They were informed that their call had been changed to South America.

Instead of being superintendent of construction for Mexico and Central America, Elder McClellan is now superintendent of construction for South America. He will still work under the direct supervision of Dyke Walton of the Church Building Committee.

The area which he will serve will be all of South America, and it will include five misions: The Andes, the Argentine, the Brazilian, the Brazilian South, and the Uruguayan.

SET APART

Bishop McClellan and his wife were set apart by Elder Critchlow, Assistant to the Quorum of the Twelve Apostles, at the recent April general conference.

Elder McClellan left for Montevideo, mission headquarters, Apr. 13. The McClellan children living at home will accompany their mother to Montevideo as soon as school is out in June.

No time has been set for this labor mission call, but Bishop McClellan stated that it would probably be a minimum of four years.

Alameda Ward

'Duty' Award To Alameda Youth

By LUE SEAVERS AND DONNA RICE

Alameda Ward is very proud of its Explorer group. Melvin James (Jim) Call is the third boy in the group to receive the coveted "Duty to God" award in the past few months. Bishop Pinckney presented the award during the Sacrament meeting April 19. Jim is the son of Melvin E. and Doris Call.

Elder Lonnie Kelly, son of Robert and Chloe Kelly was released after fulfilling a California Mission. They were residing in Pocatello, Idaho, when Elder Kelly was called on his mission. His father was transferred to Alameda to work at the Naval Air Station so it was our good fortune to hear the report of his mission and celebrate his homecoming March 26. Elder Kelly attended conference in Salt Lake City then went on to Pocatello to celebrate his homecoming there, where he expects to go to school and work.

Ralph and Erma Lane and daughter Joyce journeyed to Salt Lake to attend conference and visit with their daughter Pat who is attending the BYU. Elaine Lane also accompanied them and visited with her parents.

Oscar and Mildred Fontano also attended conference. Conference is always a must for the Fontanos.

Violet Pinckney went to Southern California to visit her sons David and George Jr. and their families. Bishop Pinckney joined them there en route from Arizona and they returned home together.

The Charles Eliason family spent the Easter vacation week in Utah. The main event was their visit with daughter Judy who is a student at the BYU.

Dallas Pocock is accompanying her parents Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Schettler on a month's vacation. Florida and New Orleans are two of the many places they plan to visit.

There have been a number of people in the ward hospitalized, or confined at home with illness. Among them are Laurean Schow, Ralph Dunford, Lloyd Graham, Orville and Beverly Armintrout. Armintrout's young son, William Gene underwent eye surgery. We are happy to note that all have improved or are well.

Walter and Vera Soots are grandparents of a new grandson born to their son and wife the Walter Soots Jr.

The young marrieds presented a dance April 15, called "Hernando's Hideaway." Much effort was put forth by Sonya Miller and Donna Rice. They actually had a green door in which to enter Hernando's Hideaway. Pizza and punch was served as refreshment.

Joanne Kirk and girls left by plane for Salt Lake April 16, where she'll await the arrival of a third child. She'll visit with her mother and mother-in-law and return home shortly after the baby's birth.

Roger and Helen Lenz are leaving our ward to move to Washington. They met and married here and have been active as stake missionaries. They both have their families in Washington.

It is curious to note that for the last eight months Marian Gooch's name has appeared in the ward news for some reason or another. This month too you'll find her name "for in having a baby she achieved some fame." The baby girl arrived April 4, and weighed 8 lbs., 9 ozs. They named her Gwen Cora which added sugar and spice to the family of 3 boys.

Play 'Step into my Parlor' Victor In Stake Competitjon, Raises Funds

"Step into my Parlor," the winning play in the Hayward Stake drama competition, was presented Friday, March 31, as a fund raising activity. The play was both written and directed by Shirlee Lundberg Call, MIA drama director.

Three acts were on the program before the play and they were enjoyable. Homemade candy and popcorn was sold to the audience. Unfortunately not many members of the ward took the opportunity to see this outstanding play and it was their loss.

ALL-LEAGUE PLAYER

Mac Winkel, one of our outstanding young men, a James Logan High Junior, was selected to the Eastern SCVAL All-league first team. He was one of the top scorers in the league. He fired in 215 markers in 16 ESCVAL games. The junior guard tabulated a grand total of 323 points in 23 games for the Logan Colts.

The Irvington Ward Sunday School Superintendent, Ralph Thomas, his wife Ann and their three children vacationed for a week in Anaheim with Ann's sister, Mrs. Terry Crowell. While there they visited Knott's Berry Farm.

It was another baby brother for Marie, Mark, and Tommy when David Lynn was added to the household of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Jipson. He weighed in at 10 lbs, 1½ oz. A baby shower was given at the home of Nancy Middleton for David.

WARD DINNER

The monthly ward dinner had a Mexican theme last time, with lots of hot enchiladas, beans, etc. There were hot dogs for the small fry. A colorful pinata was used as decoration, then broken so the candy inside could be eaten by the children.

There are three new stake missionaries from Irvington Ward. Elder Neil Rigby was released as Sunday School Superintendent to accept the call. Elder M. Ray Williams was released as MIA Superintendent to accept his call and Elder Bill Atkins was released as Gospel Doctrine teacher to accept his call.

Two of our young men, David Knight and Rich Winkel, came home from college during Easter week. Mr. and Mrs. Francis Winkel decided to take a fast trip back to Utah and take Rich back to school and spent some time with church officials concerning the building of Irvington Ward's chapel.

Sister Josephine Suico just underwent major surgery at Washington Township hospital.

Catering Service, Garff Lecture B. Fund Projects

By AFTON EAGLES

The Castro Valley Ward Relief Society announced recently that they have a catering service for weddings. The recreational hall is available for receptions and the chapel is available after clearing. The sisters of the Relief Society are prepared to take full charge or any part thereof. These facilities are available to other wards and all proceeds go to the building fund. All interested parties should contract chairman Rosemary Ludwig LU 2-6662 for full details.

On May 13, Royal L. Garff, Ph.D., from the University of Utah, will be at the Castro Valley Chapel at Almond and Seven Hills Roads to give one of his noted lectures. His subject is to be "How to Sell an Idea." His lecture is scheduled for 8 p.m. and a contribution of $1.00 is suggested. All proceeds are to go to the building fund. Everyone is invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Newman Brown departed Friday, Apr. 14, for a three-weeks trip to Chicago, where they will pick up their son, Elder Claude Brown, who will be released from his mission April 22. Elder Brown has served in the Northern States Mission the past two years.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sorensen are enjoying a vacation in Arizona and San Diego.

Our warmest wishes for a speedy recovery for six year old Nathan Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Philroy Brown. Nathan has spent three weeks in the hospital in traction and is now home in a body cast due to a bone cyst. He will be in the cast about five weeks.

Sister Eunice Walton is now up and around again following her recent car mishap.

There was mourning in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Griggs recently when Sister Grigg's mother died. The Griggs family is new to the Castro Valley Ward; they recently moved here from San Leandro.

Berkeley 2nd Ward

S. LeRoy Richards, 78, Dies in Sleep

Berkeley 2nd Ward was saddened by the news of the death of Elder S. LeRoy Richards on the morning of Apr. 20. Brother Richards moved to California in April, 1936, from Salt Lake County, Utah, where he was born Oct. 22, 1882. Before moving to the Bay Area, Elder Richards had spent over 15 years in the bishopric and high council in the Granite Stake. For a number of years he was ward clerk of the Berkeley 2nd Ward and at the time of his death he was a ward teacher and also the Stake Ward Teacher Reporter. One of his surviving children is former ward member Grace Boyack, who at the present time is residing in New Zealand with her husband Cliff.

During the past month the Ned Clyde family enjoyed the visit of Ned's parents, Governor and Mrs. Dewey Clyde of the state of Utah. The Howard Bodily family had a visit from Howard's parents. The parents of Bishop Richard W. Owens also visited recently.

Martha and Leo Gill report that they are the new parents of a new baby boy.

Among those who have been in the hospital recently are Janet Balmforth, Dolores Brown and Oliver Fullmer. We understand that all three are convalescing satisfactorily.

NEW MEMBERS

The ward wishes to welcome new converts Donna and Maureen Wheeler and Horace Hulse who were baptized at last month's baptisimal service.

Both the Scout troop and the Cub Scout Pack of Berkeley 2nd Ward won awards for excellence in the displays set up by the boys at the Annual Mt. Diablo Council Exposition which was held in Berkeley on April 8.

Among the visitors to the April conference in Salt Lake City were the Arthur Hopkins, George Olson and Paul Summerhays families; Bishop Richard W. Owens; Max Baker; Tony Woolf; and Sister Edith Laycock. Among the former ward members observed on Temple Square were former mutual president Gunnard Larson and BYU students Ann Balmforth and Karen Olson.

Congratulations are in order to Robert Olson, son of George and Sally Olson, upon receiving his Eagle Scout award.

Livermore Ward

Young Marrieds Hear 'Mikado' at Local Theater

The young marrieds of Livermore Ward are in a whirl of activities. A group of 26, on the evening of March 24, went to see the light operetta 'The Mikado" which was presented by the local theater group. Afterwards, conversation, cookies and punch were enjoyed at the home of Brother and Sister Don Biery.

A music appreciation meeting was held April 13, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Zenger. The 25 present enjoyed a well planned evening; Sue Hickenlooper was moderator. Gale Holladay, Shirley Davis, Jerry Zenger and Bill Silver explained and played a portion of their favorite records. Virginia Badger conducted a musical guessing game. And Larry and Marilyn McGrew demonstrated the cha-cha-cha.

The events on the agenda for April were a Stake planned Pizza Party on April 27 at Me-N-Eds in San Leandro. Eleven couples ate pizza and sang to the accompaniment of a piano and banjo.

A Newspaper Party will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Webb in Pleasanton on the evening of May 12. The ladies are to bring their specialty dessert. Did I hear you ask, "What's a Newspaper Party?" Answer, "Come and see!"

All married couples in the ward are invited to attend these meetings. Don't miss out on the fun, fellowship and learning these get-togethers offer. Plan now to attend.

MANAGER—Donald E. Toomey

Oakland 3rd Ward

Former Bishop Wins Election as School Director

Lorenzo Hoopes, former bishop of the Oakland 3rd Ward has been elected a School Director for the City of Oakland. As incumbent and unopposed, he was spared the rigors of campaigning, but his numerous friends made sure his name and excellent qualifications were made known to the voters. We are happy to see a representative of our Church in city government.

Brother Hoopes and his wife Stella, Bill and Joyce Osborn, Dave and Bonnie Kittinger, and Kent and LaRue Matney have been lured to the enchanted islands of the blue Pacific. They jetted for Hawaii on April 28, planning a two-week stay. A trip through the Hawaiian Temple is on their agenda.

Shirley and Bud Nebeker were proud and happy to welcome a little daughter, Heather, last month. Harlan and Blanche Henderson of the ward are two beaming grandparents.

Newly baptized are Williams and Billie Brewer and their son Stephen Jones.

One of our full-time missionaries, Elder Loveland, has completed his mission. His parents joined him here to visit the scenes of his labors and to accompany him on the journey home.

The elders' quorum had a good turnout at the potluck dinner at the end of April.

San Francisco Stake

Myrtle Nelson Released, Yvonne Hilton New Stake Head

Myrtle V. Nelson of Mission Ward was released from the Stake Primary presidency after many long and very faithful years of service to this auxiliary. Myrtle's service is exceptional and especially recognized because of her diligence to duty despite the fact she has had full care of her bedridden mother during the past three years.

Yvonne H. Hilton has been sustained as counselor in the Stake Primary presidency and she brings experience and fine leadership to the auxiliary.

A formal release of many Stake Primary Board members was effected on Mar. 27, at a combined dinner and meeting of the entire stake board together with Stake President, I. G. Derrick and the bishops from all the wards. A certificate of recognition was given to each retiring member as they were welcomed by their respective ward bishops to be used in ward service.

NEW PRIMARY PLAN

This release comes about as a result of the new plan adopted by the Primary organization throughout the Church, wherein all boards are reduced to a maximum of seven members. Thise remaining are President Claire T. Engel, counselors Viola L. Johnson and Yvonne H. Hilton, Secretary Billye V. Burnett, Music Directors Lillian Allen and Myrlene Leavitt, Scout Co-ordinator, Velma Vaden and Inservice Leader, Lillian Earnhaw.

San Francisco Stake Primary was responsible for the chartering of the bus which carried Primary workers from their own and neighboring stakes to the general conference in Salt Lake City. Attending from our stake was the entire stake presidency, plus many ward presidencies and counselors.

LOCAL TOURISTS—Several area residents got together recently to view colored slides taken on their recent trip to Latin America. The group met for dinner at the Idle Wheels Mobile Home Park in San Pablo last month, to recount events of their February tour. In addition to this year's group, members of an identical tour taken the previous year were also present. Hosts were Don and Shirley Kimball, owners of "Idle Wheels."

Group Reunion Features Slides Taken on Tour

A happy reunion took place at the beautiful recreation hall at Idle Wheels, mobile home park in San Pablo on Friday, April 14. Represented there were a group of travelers and their friends who journeyed together through Mexico and Guatemala this year from Jan. 28, through Feb. 12. Other guests at this party took a similar tour last year.

After a barbecued chicken dinner, these thirty-five guests were treated to a showing of picture slides that were taken by various members of the party. They also saw colored moving pictures that were taken by Don L. Kimball.

Organized by Burnett Hendryx of Burlingame, the trip was personally conducted by Jose O. Davila, who is an authority on all Central America as it relates to the Book of Mormon.

JET FLIGHT

At the Los Angeles International Airport the party boarded CMA's Comet jet flight non-stop for Mexico City. Here they visited the native dances and glass curtain demonstration at the Palace of Fine Arts, the National Archeological Museum, the Floating Gardens of Xochomilco, and the Famous Guadalupe Shrine, and then attended the bullfights.

They later traveled by train to the spectacular ruins of Palenque where they saw the amazing pyramids with Christian teachings carved on stone hundreds of years before Columbus.

They also flew to Merida on the colorful Yucatan Penninsula, and visited Uxmal and Kabah pyramids, the "Palace of the Governors," the great Quadrangle, and the Temple of the Rain God Masks.

The party drove to the great pyramids of Chichen Itza Feb. 3, where they saw the carving of a horse and the Hebraic faces carved in stone, and one of the most scenic of all archeological zones.

On the last day of their trip, they saw the Chiapa de Cerzo pyramid where the New World Archeological Foundation has completed five years of research into ruins dating exactly to the Book of Mormon period.
